5 - Once we have confirmed your page.

Go to your Fanpage, "Publishing Tools"

Then select "Videos You Can Crosspost" in the left hand column and the video will appear for you to use as your own post.

The screenshot shows the Facebook Publishing Tools interface for the page 'Mitch Asser'. The 'Publishing Tools' tab is active, and the 'Videos You Can Crosspost' section is selected in the left-hand navigation menu. A red arrow points to a video titled 'Fast Way To Health' by Tyler Tolman, which has 3,640 views and was added on Oct 1, 2016 at 1:48pm. The video thumbnail shows a man speaking. The interface also includes a top navigation bar with 'Page', 'Messages', 'Notifications', 'Insights', 'Publishing Tools', 'Settings', and 'Help'. The right-hand side shows a list of 'YOUR PAGES' and 'CONTACTS'.

** Crossposting helps with social proof as all the views for the video will appear under the one video.
